

“

Tell me and I forget, teach me and I may remember, involve me and I learn.

Benjamin Franklin

MENTORCONNECT Information Guide for Mentors

mentorconnect@iecbc.ca

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT & MENTORSHIP SOLUTIONS

MentorConnect matches job-ready skilled newcomers to British Columbia with established local professionals for one-on-one occupation-specific coaching. Matches are based on occupation, industry and professional experience.

#MentoringWorks

Program Overview

2 months total mentoring
commitment

12 hours total mentoring
commitment

Meetings can take place in person,
by telephone, or online

Funded by:

Financé par :

Immigration, Refugees
and Citizenship Canada

Immigration, Réfugiés
et Citoyenneté Canada

To become a mentor, I...

- possess industry knowledge within Canada and will share insights into local labour market practices,
- have a minimum of 2 years of professional experience in my occupation in Canada.
- am an established local professional who can develop a supportive and professional relationship with my mentee.
- am open to arranging further information conversations for my mentee with appropriate contacts within my professional network.
- will commit to the program deliverables and duration and provide feedback upon program completion.

Benefits of being a mentor

- Professional development and leadership opportunities.
- Enhanced coaching skills.
- Industry insights and perspectives from around the world.
- Contribute to more diverse and inclusive workplaces

The Immigrant Employment Council of BC (IEC-BC) is a not-for-profit organization that provides employers, HR recruiters and hiring managers with solutions, tools and resources they need to attract, hire, retain and develop qualified skilled newcomer talent.